

THE PURPOSE OF LAWS

- Law supports broad social values with goals, such as promoting democratic processes, protecting the right to a fair trial, prescribing honest business practices, and establishing social programs.
- Law is a way of resolving disputes in an orderly manner following legal rules.
- Law protects citizens, their property, and rights.
- Law provides a framework for order in our society and ensures some degree of predictability and stability.

